Profile

My passion for digital technology continually drives me to advance my skill set as a software engineer. With an analytical mindset and strong communication and frontend development skills, I thrive in environments where I can learn from others and inspire those around me.

Over the years I've refined a set of technical principles to strive towards, namely: complexity should only be introduced when it's unavoidable; code should be easy to reason with and delete; avoid abstracting too early, and the top priority is always the best possible user experience.

Experience

Frontend engineer

Rockstar Games / Edinburgh, UK

NOV 20 - PRESENT

As a frontend engineer I collaborate with other Rockstar technology teams across their worldwide studios to develop front-end features and applications for Rockstar's online services.

Senior engineer

BCG Digital Ventures / London, UK

APR 19 - OCT 20

As a senior engineer I collaborate with design, UX, growth, and product cohorts to engineer a robust and well documented product that can be successfully taken to market by a startup business. It is also my responsibility to support lead and mentor associate engineers wherever possible.

Associate engineer

Cohaesus / London, UK

FEB 15 - JUN 17

Cohaesus is a commercial advertising agency where I learned the fundamentals of frontend web development. During my time with them I worked both in-house and off-site at some of London's top advertising agencies, on both green field and legacy codebases.

QA tester

Rockstar North / Edinburgh, UK

MAY 14 - FEB 15

Credited as a QA Tester on Grand Theft Auto V, I was responsible for finding, reproducing, and accurately reporting issues in detailed bug reports. It also involved providing clear and concise critical analysis and feedback of reported issues and executing functionality, regression, and user acceptance testing across various platforms.
